INVITATION

Dear Colleagues,

We would like to cordially invite you to participate at the 10th International Textile, Clothing & Design Conference (ITC&D&C), which will be held at the University of Zagreb Centre for Advanced Academic Studies in Dubrovnik, Croatia from October 4th to October 7th 2020.

The Conference has been organised for the past twenty years by the University of Zagreb, Faculty of Textile Technology, with the idea to transform our decades of experience in the university education and scientific research in the fields of textile and garment technologies, fashion design and marketing, into a successful and traditional conference.

We believe in the success of this year conference based on the successful organisation of nine previous conferences, held biennially since 2002. We are proud that the 10th ITC&D&C 2020 is a proud jubilee and one of the most important conferences in the scientific field of textile and clothing technologies, fashion design and marketing. The tenth Conference will again try to present and exchange knowledge, experience, results and information related to the most recent scientific achievements in the field of textile and garment technologies, fashion design and marketing, as well as sustainability of textile products and processes.

We are certain we shall succeed this time again. The University of Zagreb, Faculty of Textile Technology, will once again offer hospitality to the world textile and we are looking forward to your valuable contributions to the “Magic World of Textiles”.

The Conference is planned to deal with the following research fields:

- textile fibres and advanced materials
- textile finishing, dyeing and care
- clothing technologies and engineering
- analysis, testing and quality control
- design and marketing of textile and clothing
- sustainable textile products and processes

All the researchers (and those who plan to be involved in textile science), engineers and students, are welcome.

Dubrovnik City walls are the most important feature of Dubrovnik and a world-renowned iconic symbol of the white stone beauty, therefore the main reason why Dubrovnik is now known as the Pearl of the Adriatic. The characteristic appearance of Dubrovnik is unmistakable as no other city in the world has retained their medieval walls so perfectly as was the case of Dubrovnik and that is why Dubrovnik is included in the World Heritage List from UNESCO as far back as 1979. And this is something you should experience!
